

Nutmeg Nominee Voting Worksheet

(This is a guide to help you evaluate the Nutmeg Nominees. It is not a ballot.)

NAME: _____

CLASS: _____

HOW TO JUDGE A NUTMEG NOMINEE	Baseball Great	Because of Mr. Terupt	Born to Fly	The mostly True Adventures of Home P. Figg	My Life as a Book	The Potato Chip Puzzles	Powerless	A Tale Dark & Grimm	Where the Mountain Meets the Moon	The Wonder of Charlie Anne
Does the author use descriptive and figurative language in order to create pictures in your head?
Does the author write the story in a way that makes you want to continue reading?
Are the characters well-developed; can you relate to them; are they believable?
Does the story stir an emotion - funny, sad, suspenseful, exciting, et?
Does the story have a satisfying ending?
Was the author creative?
Which one is your favorite? On a scale of 1 (low) to 5 (high), rate each title you have read.

Answer each question, using a scale of 1 (low) to 5 (high) for each book you have read.

Created by Angie Groman, Librarian at Long Meadow Elementary in Middlebury, CT.

Remember:

Judge only the books you have read. You do not need to read all ten. You need to read at least five to participate in the voting during the week of April 8th.